OCCORD INTERNSHIP PROGRAM: ORGANIZING TO CHANGE ORANGE COUNTY!

For decades, anti-immigrant politics and laissez-faire economics have excluded Orange County's working families and immigrant communities from the political process. But Orange County is changing. Immigrant workers are organizing, exercising their rights in the workplace and in society, and winning a voice in the decisions that affect their lives. This summer, they need you – your energy and your enthusiasm – to join them in their struggle.

Orange County Communities Organized for Responsible Development (OCCORD) offers a 12-week, paid internship for committed individuals who will spend their summer empowering immigrant communities through neighborhood outreach, education, organizing, and mobilization:

- ❖ Duration: 12 weeks from mid-June through early September.
- ❖ Pay: $11.25/hour
- ❖ 40-hour work week (8 hours per day, five days per week, including evenings and weekends).
- ❖ Participants must be bilingual in Spanish and English.
- ❖ The program includes training to develop skills useful for permanent employment in the non-profit sector.
- ❖ Recent college graduates and unemployed persons are especially encouraged to apply.
